

Faustine Hornok

Glam | DESIGNERS

Faustine Hornok is a well-respected French hair and makeup artist, originally from Normandie, France. She completed her hair and makeup training at the age of 18 and moved to Paris to launch her career in the exciting world of high fashion. Faustine got her start with top fashion brands in the pressurized environment of Fashion Week in Paris, working with brands such as Dior, Aganovich, Tom Ford, and more. Early in her career, Faustine collaborated with renowned photographer, Fred Meylan. They worked together for several years on many prestigious brands and magazines, including ELLE France, Glamour, Lanvin and Dior. In 2013, Faustine moved to Los Angeles to pursue her career in the U.S. as a hair and makeup artist. A few days after moving to L.A., she was introduced to the multi-talented Paula Abdul and shortly thereafter became her personal hair and makeup artist. She continues her work with Ms. Abdul and has participated in many incredible projects such as So You Think You Can Dance, American Idol, US Package Tour (2x), Las Vegas Residency (2x), Masked Dancer and many other TV productions and special events. Faustine has worked for the past several years and continues to work with the illustrious actress, Teri Hatcher, on multiple TV, film and streaming projects. She has done hair and makeup for other renowned celebrities such as Paris Jackson, Christian Slater, Amelia Gray, and Chrishell Stause on a wide variety of entertainment-industry projects.
